Re: Sikhs for Justice et al. v. Indian National Congress Party et al.
SDNY 10 CV 2940 (RWS)

Dear Judge Sweet:

I had written to Your Honor on March 25, 2011 requesting until June 24, 2011 for defendant Indian National Congress Party ("INCP") to respond to the First Amended Complaint and Summons. The Court had kindly granted my request on March 28 by endorsement of my letter. Thereafter, Wiggin and Dana entered appearance for INCP, also on March 28.

Both Wiggin and Dana and my firm had acted on instructions from Dr. Surinder Malhotra, President of Indian National Overseas Congress, Queens, New York. Wiggin and Dana have now filed a motion with this Honorable Court seeking permission for them to withdraw as counsel for INCP on the basis that Dr. Malhotra apparently did not have authorization from INCP to employ counsel for these proceedings. Accordingly, in the interest of clarification, I respectfully request the Court, as well as all parties, to kindly note my firm will not be representing INCP in this, or any other, litigation.
